

SUV Cycle Carrier Worksheet

SAS Carrier Numbering System
 example: "3B6-19"
 3 = receiver size (see right)
 B = weld on tray
 6 = tray width
 19 = "F" (see lower right)

Notes:

- |                                     |                                     |   |                                     |   |   |                      |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|-------------------------------------|---|---|----------------------|
| <input type="text"/>                | <input type="text"/>                | <input type="text"/>                    | <input type="text"/>                | <input type="text"/>                          | <input type="text"/>  | <input type="text"/> |
| 'A'                                 | 'B'                                 | 'C'                                     | 'D'                                 | 'E'   | 'F'   |                      |
| distance fromreceiver to bumper | distance fromtailgate to bumper | distance fromreceiver pin to ground | distance fromhandlebar to hatch | distance from bottomof wheel to handlebar | distance from receiverpin to center of tray(19" = standard) |                      |